

Terms and Conditions of Participation in Tri 21 Series

- All participants are to adhere to the rules and regulations of the sports centre.
- All participants, match officials, staff and the event organisers are to be always treated with respect.
- All participants in Tri 21 Series freely choose to participate and understand the nature of the sport they are participating in. All participants fully understand and accept that participating in Tri 21 Series is at their own risk. Participants are aware and accept that participating in such sporting activities exposes them to inherent risks, dangers and hazards.
- For the avoidance of doubt, Down Syndrome Queensland Ltd and its employees, agents and contractors will not be responsible for any injuries sustained or liable for any loss or damage.
- I understand that whilst attending any Tri 21 Series event photographic images - still and video - may be taken of me and my family members during the proceedings.
- I may also from time-to-time forward images of myself and/or my family members to the Tri 21 Series.
- I give permission the Tri 21 series to use the afore mentioned images as representations or reproductions for the purposes of advertising, fundraising, awareness raising, information, funding submissions, reporting and any other purpose without need for further consent permission from me at the discretion of the Tri 21 Series.
- I also release and hold harmless the Tri 21 Series and their contractors, employees and any third party involved in the creation or publication of such material from liability for any claims by me or any third party in connection with the use of the images. I understand all material gathered is subject to the discretion of the Tri 21 Series. I understand that Tri 21 Series may not use all or any of the material gathered.
