

South Australian Information Service Survey 2020

This is an Easy Read survey.

It is for people who live in South Australia.

It has questions about a new information service.

About the survey

Who is doing this survey?

Down Syndrome Australia is doing the survey.

Our job is to speak up for people with Down syndrome.

Why are we doing the survey?

We are starting a new information service in South Australia.

We want to hear from you about what information you need.

We also want to know how you want to connect with us.

Who can fill in the survey?

People with Down syndrome and their families who live in South Australia.

This is the short Easy Read survey. There is a longer survey too.

Important information before you start

You can take some time to think about whether you want to do the survey or not.

You can choose if you want to answer all the questions in the survey or not.

You can choose just to do some of the questions if you like.

You can decide if you will put personal information in the survey.

Personal information is information about you, like your name or your address.

It is your choice.

If you give us your personal information, we will keep it safe and private.

You can ask someone to help you answer the questions if you want to.

You can tick boxes and write or draw your answers.
