

Employment Connections at Down Syndrome Victoria

A free service for employers.

Why employ a person with Down syndrome?

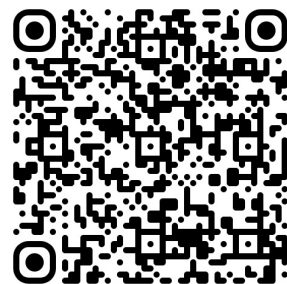

- Provide a diverse and inclusive workplace
- Increase team morale and culture
- Have a positive impact on client satisfaction and business reputation
- Gain an enthusiastic and loyal employee

What services are provided?

- Identifying and carving a suitable role*
- Down syndrome awareness training for your team
- Advertising your role to the Down Syndrome Victoria (DSV) community
- Receiving applications and coordinating interviews
- Onboarding support
- An Employment Support Coach to provide on-the-job support
- Acknowledgment of your business on the DSV website and newsletter

*Includes negotiating the number of hours per week. The majority of roles are typically between 6-15 hours per week.

Visit our website or contact Bree Mills,
Employment Connections Manager
P 03 9486 9600 / 0402 799 012
E breem@dsav.asn.au

downsyndrome.org.au/vic

Down Syndrome
Victoria